NEWS FORECAST COMING WEEK

Washington, D. C., April 11.—National politics will continue in the foreground of American news during the coming week. Other matters of interest will include the movements of the battleship fleet, a series of labor conventions at Fort Worth, the trial of the New York mayorality contest, and several important events in the field of athletics and sports.

The Democratic State convention in New York will be held Tuesday and is expected to develop an interesting contest. The Bryan followers will press for instructions, the opposition will oppose them, and from present indications a merely complimentary mention is the best that the Nebraska leader can expect.

Judge George Gray will be indorsed for the presidential nomination by the Democratic State convention of Delaware, which will also meet next Tuesday.

In the Republican column the leading event of the week will be the State convention in Minnesota, to assemble Thursday in Minneapolis. The Taft managers are confident that the convention will indorse their candidate. Another Taft indorsement is expected from the Arizona Territorial convention, which will meet Saturday in Tucson.

There will be considerable political speechmaking during the week in addition to that which may be expected in the conventions.

The Jefferson birthday anniversary on Monday will afford an opportunity for Democratic banquets in many parts of the country. Chief among these will be the function in New York under the auspices of the National Democratic Club, to which Mr. Bryan declined an invitation. The speakers will include President Woodrow Wilson of Princeton University and Senators Owen of Oklahoma, Taylor of Tennessee and Simmons of North Carolina.

Mr. Bryan has accepted an invitation to a Jefferson Day banquet in Trenton, N. J. On the same night Governor Johnson of Minnesota is to address a political gathering in Louisville. Michigan will be the stampingground for Mr. Bryan during the latter half of the week.

The baseball season of 1908 will be started in earnest next Tuesday with the opening of the season in the National and American Leagues. Later in the week the Southern, Northwestern, Virginia and other minor leagues will get under way. The expense for the two major leagues for the year 1908 is estimated at $2,000,000.

The metropolitan racing season will begin Wednesday with the opening of the spring meeting of the Queens County Jockey Club at Aqueduct. The Carter handicap of $10,000 will be run on the opening day.

SAGAN SEES HER OFF.

Mme. Gould Leaves on One Vessel, Prince by Another.

New York, April 11.—Mme. Anna Gould, with his children and their tutor, sailed for Genoa and Naples Saturday on board the North German Lloyd Steamer Frederick der Grosse. About the same hour Prince de Sagan, who has been paying assiduous court to Mme. Gould, sailed for Europe on the American line steamer St. Paul.

Mme. Gould and children passed Friday night on board steamer Frederick.

PRINCE HELIE DE SAGAN.

Heck der Grosse. She registered on the passenger list of the steamer as Miss Annette Chapin. Mme. Gould was accompanied to the steamer by Prince de Sagan and Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Morse, her friends, whom she had been visiting at Hotel St. Regis.

FINANCIAL TROUBLES CAME.

Charles A. Murphy Fires Bullet into His Head at Astor House.

New York, April 11.—Charles A. Murphy, a prominent lawyer and real estate dealer, committed suicide in a room in the Astor House by shooting himself through the head. A brief note which Murphy left for his wife showed that he had planned to kill himself. He was president of the Brooklyn Heights Improvement company and secretary-treasurer of the Key West, Fla., Electric company.

His suicide is attributed to financial troubles. A few months ago Mr. Murphy considered himself worth between $150,000 and $200,000, mostly tied up in the Key West company. Through an unfortunate syndicate operation he is said to have lost control of this property and all his assets were swept away. The blow completely discouraged him.

SNOW TOO DEEP.

American Automobile Will Sail From Seattle to Vladivostok.

Seattle, Wash., April 11.—A cable dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer from Valdez, says: The American automobile and crew left on the steamer Bertha for Seattle. A public reception was given them by the chamber of commerce and the crew started to inspect the trail. They went ten miles. Driver Schuster, when interviewed, said the Alaskans had his sympathy, as the depth of the snow and chuck holes absolutely prohibit any chance of automobiles running a mile. He says he will return to Seattle and ship for Vladivostok to make up the time lost on the Alaskan trip. He will attempt to charter the sea-going tug Walcott at Orca, or take the car and crew across to Siberia. It is doubtful if this can be done.

Makes Breakfast Fire and Suicides.

Nashville, April 11.—Near Smithland, Lincoln county, Charles Baker, twelve years old, made fire for breakfast, took carbolic acid and died.

INTANGIBLE ASSETS.

Tax Commissioner Presents the Ones of Railroads.

Austin, April 11.—Tax Commissioner Dashiell has given out a statement showing the intangible assets of seventy-three railroads in Texas, according to preliminary estimate made for 1908, to be $139,897,062, against $227,000,000 for 1907, or a decrease of $87,000,000, for 1908. This number of companies includes three bridge and ferry companies. The true value of these seventythree companies was found to be $424,011,293 and value of tangible property to be $234,114,231. The preliminary estimate this year is $172,000,000 and includes more companies than were reported last year. All companies have been notified to appear before the tax board May 4 and show cause why this preliminary estimate should not be made.

Railroad Commissioner Colquitt made a motion to the commission that notwithstanding the opinion of the attorney general to the contrary, that the commissioner approve the special rates offered by the railroad companies to delegates to the convention of volunteer firemen at Waco. The motion is accompanied by nine pages of typewritten matter, in which he takes issue with the views of the attorney general's department, and cites that it has been the practice of commission for years to authorize special rates of this character. As to anti-pass law, he says: "I think in the construction of the anti-pass act the railroad commission should give to it a practical meaning and one which will meet purposes for which it was enacted without making it obnoxious to the public or requirements of business conditions."

All but One For LaFollette.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 11.—The Wisconsin delegation to the Republican national convention stands: LaFollette, 25; Taft, 1.

Stock Going to Oklahoma.

Cleburne, Tex., April 11.—The Santa Fe railway is transporting about 200 carloads of stock daily to Oklahoma.

Fatal Bolt.

Denison, April 11.—Across Red river, near here, John Garber while in a pasture was killed by lightning.

Kills an Employee.

Grenada, Miss., April 11.—Near here K. W. Hornsby shot and killed W. C. Snider, an employee.

TUCKER CASE AFFIRMED.

The court of Civil Appeals in session at Texarkana, has affirmed the case of the Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone Co. vs. N. B. Tucker of this city, in which Tucker was awarded $1625.00 damages for personal injuries sustained by a fall from a pole while in the service of the company in this city. Judge V. B. Hudson appeared before the court at Texarkana as attorney for Tucker at the hearing last week.

BASE BALL.

The Allen Academy defeated Marlin yesterday by a score of 6 to 1. The Academy team will be much strengthened Monday by the return to the Academy of Carroll Ward, who was here last year, and has been catching for Baylor this year.

The A. and M. team defeated T. C. U. of Waco at College Friday by a score of 2 to 1. The game yesterday afternoon was called in the fourth inning on account of rain, with the advantage on the side of the visitors.

DR. RANKIN AT THE METHODIST CHURCH TONIGHT.

Dr. Geo. C. Rankin came down from Dallas yesterday and went out to the A. and M. College, where he will preach this morning at 11 o'clock. Dr. Rankin will come to Bryan today and will preach at the Methodist church tonight at 7:45. Dr. Rankin is one of the ablest preachers in the state. All are cordially invited to hear him.

BY CARNES & WALLACE

BRYAN, TEXAS, APRIL 12, 1908.

There are 2,157,570 mile of public wagon roads in the United States. To drive over all of them at the rate of 25 miles a day would require a little more than fifteen years, making no allowance for Sundays or holidays. This a big country.

There is so much indignation over the Tatsu Meru incident that war is not even yet improbable. The people of China are very much dissatisfied with the action of their government and the boycott of Japanese merchandise is prevailing to such an extent that the government may be compelled to intervene.

Things are coming to a pretty pass in this county when cabinet officers receive threatening letters every day and their persons and homes must be guarded all the time by secret police. The anarchists on the one hand and the government fostered monopolies on the other are making an issue that the people will have to meet.

We know things only by contrast. When Tom Moore sang: "Spring would be but gloomy weather if we had nothing else but spring," he was stating a philosophic truth in poetical language. Success without defeat would mean nothing, nor pleasure without pain. The law of contrast runs through the whole concatenation of human affairs.

Attorney General Hadley has withdrawn from the race for governor of Missouri, with almost a certainty of election, and, with his family, will come to Texas to recruit his broken health. As a prosecutor of the big trusts he has won a reputation second to that of no other man in the United States. He and Attorney General Davidson have worked together in this campaign.

Local self-government is the very bed rock of democracy, and if Governor Johnson succeeds in making the Democratic masses believe that he is the truest and best representative of that idea he will be a formidable candidate for the presidency. He is young enough to wait till 1912. Bryan is the peer of Johnson in the advocacy of state rights and his superior in many other things. He has moreover borne the heat and burden of the day, while Johnson is yet an eleven hour man.

BETHEL ACADEMY PICNIC.
Prof. E. K. Barden of Bethel Academy was in the city yesterday and requested the Eagle to announce a Bethel Academy school picnic, which will be held April 21, in Mr. E. U. Peter's pasture, at Wixon Creek bridge and about one mile from Holligan chapel. All other schools are invited to unite in this basket picnic, and everybody is invited. There will be some speakers present, a fine dinner and a baseball game in the afternoon.

MASS MEETING CALLED.

Movement to Organize the Business and Professional Interests of Bryan for the Uplifting of the Town.

Elsewhere in the Eagle this morning will be found a call, signed by three representative business men, for a mass meeting to be held at the K. of P. hall Tuesday evening at 4 o'clock for the purpose of discussing matters for the upbuilding of the town and county, and to form a permanent organization with this end in view. It is not necessary for the Eagle to emphasize the fact that this is a timely, and we may say an imperative move. All the live towns of the state are making a united effort to hold what they have had and to build up still more. Every business and professional man and property owner in the city is equally interested in this matter, and what is for the benefit of the town and county will be of benefit to all. Bryan needs an old-fashioned wide, awake advertising campaign, that begins at home and extends to the limits of our trade territory. We need to get together and encourage home trade and home enterprises; we need to let the people know we have the goods and can make the prices, and that their trade is appreciated. Bryan is a better town than ever before in her history, and all that is necessary to make her get up and hum is to let it be known that her people are united and determined to keep the fact before them that this is the most attractive market and trading point in central Texas. When people put aside their personal interests and unite together to accomplish something the work is already half done. The Eagle hopes this call will meet with a rousing response and that it will be the beginning of a movement that will mean better roads, better advertising methods, and better everything that will unite the people of the town and county for the advancement and uplifting of both.

CALL FOR MASS MEETING.

There will be a an important meeting of all merchants and professional men at K. of P. Hall Tuesday evening 4 p. m. The needs of a greater Bryan will be discussed, a permanent organization will be made and an active campaign begun to develop Bryan and its whole territory.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS CHANGE.

Firm of Wagner & Brandon Dissolved
—Mr. A. J. Wagner will Continue the Business.

Announcement is made elsewhere in this issue of the dissolution of the dry goods firm of Wagner & Brandon of this city. The deal, which has been under consideration several days took place yesterday. Mr. Brandon retires from the firm and Mr. A. J. Wagner will continue the business. The work of stock taking is now in progress and Mr. C. H. Woodson of Cameron, and Mr. Rob Hearn of Navasota, both formerly with the firm here, are assisting with the work of invoicing. This firm has long been one of the leading ones of Bryan, Mr. Brandon having the active management, and Mr. Wagner residing in New York. He has a number of stores in this state, and represents them in the East.

Mr. Brandon has made no announcement of his plans for the future, but is sincerely hoped by the people of this city that he will not conclude to go elsewhere. He has long been one of the active, progressive and public spirited business men of the community, and the loss of him and his family would be deeply felt by the people of Bryan.

FOSTER'S WEATHER BULLETIN.

(Copyrighted 1908 by W. T. Foster).
Washington, D. C., April 11.—Last bulletin gave forecasts of disturbance to cross continent 9 to 13, warm wave 8 to 12, cool wave 11 to 15. Next disturbance will reach Pacific coast about 14, cross Pacific slope by close of 15, great central valleys 16 to 18, eastern states 19. Warm wave will cross Pacific slope about 14, great central valleys 16, eastern states 18. Cool wave will cross Pacific slope about 17, great central valleys 19, eastern states 21.

This will be a moderate disturbance as wind forces but immoderate because of its high temperatures. Its cool wave will close a long period of very warm and dry weather and some rain may be expected as the cool wave comes in. This cool wave will also be moderate and frosts will remain far away to the northward.

About and immediately after April 11 a storm wave of moderate intensities will be near meridian 90 and will cause unusually high temperatures and dry weather. No very severe storms are expected but the disturbances will reach their greatest intensities about April 16.

In Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia and southeast quarter of the United States temperatures are expected to average much lower than in northern states, great central valleys and Canada. The coolest part of the continent will center around April 25. My advices to farmers and planters as to the prices of the cereals have proven very satisfactory and beneficial. I am expecting good prices to continue, reaching the high point about last of June.

GRAND RALLY TODAY.

With the blessing of God it is hoped to make this a red-letter day in the religious history of Bryan. This was the theme of most interest in the informal talks in the service yesterday. The statement was made by Evangelist Compton that there are fully 500 unsaved people within the sphere of influence of the Bryan churches and a supreme effort will be made to reach them with the regenerating power of the gospel. Scores of earnest christians of all ages and both sexes pledged themselves to use their best efforts by personal work and prayer to bring every possible unconverted man and woman, boy and girl in Bryan to Christ.

Great interest is centered in the evangelistic service to be led by Dr. Compton at the Sunday school hour at the Baptist church. Sunday school pupils in large numbers will be present, together with parents and Christian workers. Remember the hour 9:45 a. m.

Regular services in the different churches will be held at the usual hour this morning, all in line with the great work of grace now the one absorbing theme of conversation and thought in our city.

At 4 p. m. all the men in Bryan are earnestly requested to meet in the Baptist church for a special men's service. At the same hour the women will meet in the Methodist church for a woman's service. Let everybody come.

FINE MEETING AT ROCKDALE.

Rev. Jas. A. Challenor, pastor of the Christian Church, writes the Eagle from Rockdale requesting us to announce Bible school and the Lord's supper at the Christian church this morning.

The Rockdale meeting in which Rev. Challenor is engaged is meeting with splendid success, and he is unable to state when he will come home. Large crowds are attending the services and those unable to get in stand about the doors and windows. There have been a number of additions to the church each day.

SOCIAL AND CLUB MATTERS.

A brilliant social event of the week was the meeting of the Week-end Club with the president, Mrs. H. A. Burger, on Friday afternoon. The affair was an Easter party and one of the prettiest given since this popular club was organized. The decorations were exceedingly lovely and the Easter suggestions brought out everything. The rooms were darkened, and the parlor in pink, with white tapers, pink roses being used in profusion. In the dining room the decorations reached their perfection. Red roses added a dash of color, while festoons of white tissue and Easter lilies were suspended from the chandelier over the table and hung above each of the five tables arranged for the forty-two games. Each white pendant supported above each table a white dove. Red candles burned in silver candelabra, and a handsome center piece completed the table effect. In one dainty corner the punch bowl was imbedded in a wealth of red roses and perched upon the brim was a row of dainty little chickens. Misses Hattie Lou Hudson and Frances Fountain dispensed the refreshing beverage. The score cards were little egg baskets with little chicks perched on them, the table markers were Easter eggs and the games were scored with Easter eggs. Little chicks also "roosted" in miniature trees on the mantel, and looked ever so cozy and attractive. Candied Easter eggs took the place of bonbons. Sherry cream and cake were served. The games of forty-two were much enjoyed and the president-hostess was much complimented by the guests on the lovely affair when leave taking time came. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Lem B. Hall at the home of Mrs. J. N. Cole.

Wednesday a merry party from Bryan visited the Brazos bottom, meeting a party from Caldwell, and were royally entertained at the Gregg and Parker homes with barbecues and a dance. The Bryan crowd was accompanied by an orchestra.

Miss Fannie Fountain of this city will lead in the grand march of the Easter german of the State University German Club at Austin with the president of the Club, Mr. G. M. Brandon Jr., a member of the University Senior class.

Several school and Sunday school picnics were enjoyed yesterday notwithstanding the showery character of the weather.

The Bachelor Girls will meet with Miss Arrie Cole on Wednesday.

BY MEANS OF A MASS.

Ingenious Attempt Is Made to Swindle a Priest.

WISHED REQUIEM SERVICE

Party Purporting to Have Lost Mother Presents Check, Asking That Eight Dollars Be Paid Him, but Clergyman Was Suspicious and Man Fleed.

Chicago, April 11.—An ingenious attempt to swindle Rev. James M. Scanlon, pastor of St. John's Roman Catholic church, was made by a man who tried to pass a worthless check in payment of a requiem high mass that was to be said for the visitor's deceased mother. The check purported to be drawn on a Chicago bank for $18 and the man who presented it wanted $8 in currency, leaving $10 for the mass.

Father Scanlon asked the visitor why he had come to St. John's church to have the mass said and the answers did not impress the priest with the man's assumed grief. The police were notified, but before their arrival the stranger fled.

Father Scanlon made no effort to hold the man, fearing he might be attacked with a deadly weapon.

ARSENIC IN FLOUR.

Sufficient Quantity to Lead to Twenty Deaths

Chicago, April 11.—The mysterious attempt to poison the family of Frank Renda, which resulted in the death of his four-year-old daughter Mary, and the serious illness of himself and wife is believed by the police to have its origin in Sicily where five years ago Renda married Antoinette Merlingo.

Detectives are investigating the theory that Renda was followed from Sicily to America by some suitor of the young woman, and that suitor out of a spirit of revenge, conceived the plan of murdering the family by placing the arsenic in their food.

Renda, his wife and child became seriously ill and physicians were called by Frank Nicolozze, a boarder. Shortly after they arrived at the house the girl died. Medical treatment saved the lives of the father and mother.

The physicians reported the death to Coroner Hoffman and an analysis of the food found in the dwelling was made by the city chemist.

In a twenty-five pound sack of flour was found sufficient arsenic to cause the death of twenty persons.

She was a member of the class taught by him at the University of Chicago. Professor Triggs' connection with the University of Chicago was severed some years ago because of his views. He testified at the trial in which he was divorced from his former wife that he did not regard marriage as conducive to morals.
